Château d'Haurets's 2019 Bordeaux Blanc can be summarized in two words, delicate and elegant. It begins from the moment you pour the wine into your glass and see the pale yellow color reflect the light with hints of lime green. The nose begins to romance you with a skillfully delicate balance of white flowers and fresh fruit. The mouth's elegance defines its presence with length and a fine balance of softness and freshness. Drink as an aperitif or with fish and other seafood.

2019's Bordeaux season wasn't straightforward. It began in a place that only left room for improvement—and it did. The resulting season was full of heat and rain that ended with a harvest that had just enough rain and ideal temperatures.

Château d'Haurets covers 14.8 hectares of clay-limestone soils. The Sauvignon Blanc, Muscadelle, and Semillon vines are all living the benefits of sustainable farming practiced by the Ducourt family. After the grapes are harvested in the early morning to reap the benefits of the cool temperatures, the fruits enter skin-contact maceration for several hours. From here, the juice goes into a temperature controlled fermentation until it is aged on lees in thermo-regulated stainless steel vats.

Once a modest farm, Château d'Haurets was converted into the chateau we know of today in the 18th Century when it was bought by Swedish man. 200 years later, in 1983, it was bought by Henri and Simone Ducourt. Since the property has been adopted by the family, it has become a place for their family and friends to gather together for any and all occasions. The chateau breathes the life that surrounds it, one full of joy and love, into the wines produced by the estate.

2019 Wine Enthusiast – 88 points

"The 2019 Château D'Haurets Bordeaux Blanc opens to fresh inviting aromas gooseberries, melon, lime along with with a steely, grassy character that all take shape in the glass. On the palate this is bright and vibrant, with a lovely mineral streak the frames the juicy mouthwatering flavors. This is a delicious Sauvignon Blanc that should provide that should provide instant appeal." –I.W.R.
