Château Paradis's 2019 « La Grande Terre » vintage introduces itself with an intense rose color that opens into a nose full of a rich blend of white fruits and flowers with subtle spicy notes. The palette is well balanced with a beautiful perfection of freshness accompanied by a long fruity finish. A great wine to share with friends over grilled meats and vegetables à la Provençal.

Chateau Paradis, is the soul of a great terroir. In an exceptional setting, between the Sainte Victoire Mountain and the Luberon, the estate of Château Paradis totals 160 hectares 80 of which are dedicated to this cuvée. The 30-year old rootstocks of these vines reach down deep into a rich clay-limestone terroir some 650 feet above sea level.

Located on the north face of the Trevaresse Mountain in front of the Durance River, the vines benefit from the Mistral winds coming from the Rhône valley and a cool climate that follows the river. Syrah, Grenache and Cabernet Sauvignon vines thrive in the warm Mediterranean climate and produce a perfectly crafted rosé wine. Clay imparts power and aromatics to the wine, while the chalky limestone rounds it out, bringing fruit notes and a nice minerality.

With the support of renowned Rhone consultant winemaker Michel Tardieu and Philippe Cambie, (Robert Parker's 2010 Winemaker of the Year) highly-regarded oenologists in the Rhône Valley, work alongside our team to produce exceptional wines that reflect the authenticity and particularity of our terroir. The Grenache imparts elegant aromas of small red fruits and brings roundness and strength to the wine while Syrah adds a lovely touch of spice. The Cabernet Sauvignon contributes structure and tannins.

ACCOLADES

2019 International Wine Report – 91 points

"The 2019 Château Paradis 'La Grande Terre' is a lovely showing in this vintage. It opens to pretty aromatics of white peach, strawberries and orange zest underlined by some wet stone minerals. On the palate this is well balanced and remains fresh throughout" -IWR
