Château Paradis' 2021 'La Grande Terre' Rosé introduces itself as a symbol of the estate. A pale salmon color will ordain your glass as a complex blend of tangy red fruits such as wild strawberries and currants highlighted by notes of orange zest will hypnotize your nose. At first, the palate is dominated by a citrus bouquet that is led by a strong presence of grapefruit and crushed stone. Its texture and mouthfeel is well balanced while remaining fresh throughout the finish. This cuvée is the quintessential definition of a rosé from the North of the Aix en Provence hillsides. A great wine to share with friends over grilled meats and vegetables à la Provençal.

Provence's 2021 vintage has been ordained a 'winegrower's vintage'. It was challenging, unforgiving, and humbling. Between the combinations of wildfires, labor concerns, and pandemic restrictions, this year was not for the shy of heart. But in the end it was time of celebration, of a battle well won.

Château Paradis is the soul of a great terroir. In an exceptional setting, between the Sainte Victoire Mountain and the Luberon, the estate of Château Paradis totals 160 hectares 80 of which are dedicated to this cuvée. The 30-year old rootstocks of these vines reach down deep into a rich clay-limestone terroir some 650 feet above sea level.

Located on the north face of the Trevasse Mountain in front of the Durance River, the vines benefit from the Mistral winds coming from the Rhône valley and a cool climate that follows the river. Syrah, Grenache and Cabernet Sauvignon vines thrive in the warm Mediterranean climate and produce a perfectly crafted rosé wine. Clay imparts power and aromatics to the wine, while the chalky limestone rounds it out, bringing fruit notes and a nice minerality.

With the support of renowned Rhone consultant winemaker Michel Tardieu and Philippe Cambie, (Robert Parker's 2010 Winemaker of the Year) highly-regarded oenologists in the Rhône Valley, work alongside our team to produce exceptional wines that reflect the authenticity and particularity of our terroir. The Grenache imparts elegant aromas of small red fruits and brings roundness and strength to the wine while Syrah adds a lovely touch of spice. The Cabernet Sauvignon contributes structure and tannins.

ACCOLADES

2021 International Wine Report – 91 points

"The 2021 'La Grande Terre' Rosé opens to pretty aromatics of white peach, strawberries, orange zest and even some exotic hints of melon which are underlined by hints of crushed stones. On the palate this possesses a lovely texture mouthfeel and is well balanced while remaining fresh throughout the finish." -I.W.R.
