Domaine du Grand Montmirail's 'Vieilles Vignes' Gigondas manifests Yves Cheron's refined elegance that he creates in an appellation often perceived as rustic. This particular wine showcases this brilliantly, with Grenache bringing power, body and warmth to the wine, while Mourvèdre fleshes out the structure and Syrah supplies longevity.

The 2019 Rhône Valley vintage challenged its winemakers. The winter was mild, and continued into a dry spring, which led to an early bud break. It was then met with an unexpected cold snap and a strikingly hot summer. However, Domaine du Grand Montmirail was able to pass Mother Nature's tests with such a concentrated, balanced, refreshing cuvée.

On 59 acres of AOC Gigondas hillsides and terraces, mostly Grenache vines (55+ years old) along with Syrah and Mourvèdre (25+ years old) are planted in red clay soils with a high proportion of rocky stones. They benefit from a sunny Southern exposure and are sheltered from the blistering Mistral wind by the cliffs, which form a natural amphitheater. The high altitude of the vineyards (1,300 ft.) means cool fresh nights to counter the heat. These natural conditions lead to a supple and elegant Gigondas wine.

Denis Cheron acquired the Domaine du Grand Montmirail after moving to the Southern Rhône in the 1960s from Burgundy's Côte de Nuits, where his son Yves was born and where he learned about winemaking with the delicate Pinot Noir grape. Yves took over operations in the 1980s and turned an old convent on the property into fabulously placed living quarters for the family. His philosophy is simple: small-production wines straight from the source. The domaine extends over hillsides and terraces of the Southern Rhône, including the appellations of Gigondas, Vacqueyras, and Beaufort de Venise.
